Women About is a not-for-profit organization that provides a forum for lesbians to meet, gather information, share interests, and participate in social, cultural and athletic activities in a supportive environment. A calendar of events is published quarterly and sent to the full membership.

Women About holds quarterly meetings to schedule events and to discuss procedural matters and goals of the organization. All meetings are open to members (see calendar for dates). Members must be 18 years of age or older, and are expected to uphold the stated purposes of the organization which are: 1) to empower lesbians to realize their fullest potential; and 2) to encourage women to reach beyond the limitations imposed by self and society.
